

Craftacular

2nd Annual Spectacular Craft Event at the Monroe County History Center
Sunday, April 11
12-5pm

Craft•ac•u•lar \kraf-'ta-kyə-lər\
1: An event where people come together to delight in all things craft.
2: When something is both crafty and spectacular.

This spectacular craft event will feature hands-on learning opportunities and craft demonstrations, make-n-take craft creation labs, free museum admission, information tables, and will serve as a place for the community to come together while crafting.

Application for Craftacular 2010 Space

Contact Name: _____ Group Name: _____

Address: _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

At Craftacular, We/I Plan To:

- Sell craft items Promote my craft/DIY group: _____
- Actively craft/answer craft questions while at my space: _____
- Host an activity station (activity stations offer patrons an ability to sit-down at the exhibitor's space and try their hand at a craft – station host will provide materials – will be featured on the schedule of events)
Available times: entire event on the hour only during these hours: _____
State craft: _____
- Lead a make-n-take craft creation lab (craft labs take place in the Deckard Education Room and at set times – lab host will provide materials – lab will be featured on the schedule of events)
Available times: 12:30-1:30pm 2:00-3:00pm 3:30-4:30pm
State end product: _____

Space Needs

- Table Chairs #: _____ Electrical access Ability to make a mess
- Ability to use glue, glitter, dye, crayons, pens, markers, or any other marking device

Sign & Return by Friday, March 19

I understand that I will supply all materials needed for the creation of my crafts and that I may not hold the Monroe County Historical Society, Inc. responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged items. I also understand that this application does not guarantee my person or group a spot at the 2010 Craftacular event and all applications are pending judgment of the Historical Society staff. Each person or group will be contacted directly for details regarding Craftacular space.

Signature: _____ Print Name: _____ Date: _____