

Monroe County Women

Monroe County History Center

202 E. Sixth St.

Bloomington IN 47408

Answers at:

http://www.monroehistory.org/museum_and_exhibits/moco_women_quiz.htm

Match the woman in the left column with the clue in the right column.

- | | |
|--------------------------|--|
| 1. Lora Batchelor | A. A school teacher who wrote a book about African Americans in Bloomington. |
| 2. Mary Alice Dunlap | B. Was the first woman elected mayor of Bloomington. |
| 3. Elizabeth Bridgwaters | C. Was the first woman on the IU Board of Trustees. |
| 4. Rachel Peden | D. Helped develop and lead the 4-H program in Monroe County. |
| 5. Mattie Jacobs Fuller | E. Woman mayor who completed someone else's term & lost her own bid for election. |
| 6. Tomi Allison | F. A teacher and administrator who had a middle school named for her. |
| 7. Nellie Showers Teter | G. Played the organ in the community to raise money for her church. |
| 8. Elma Stevenson | H. Wrote books and newspaper columns about rural life in Monroe County. |
| 9. Margaret McCalla | I. First African American woman elected to the school board. |
| 10. Frances Gilliam | J. First woman school superintendent in Monroe County. There was a grade school named for her. |

